MEMORANDUM FOR: THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Points of Agreement in Discussions with [ ]
BGFIEND

PRESENT: [ ]

1. The following were agreed to during the review of Project BGFIEND on 4 December 1951:

- a. It was agreed the operations during 1951/1952 would be based upon limited infiltration operations using high level agents supplemented by separate harassment activities including spectacular, one-time missions using such groups as Matiani's.
- b. It was agreed that leaflet drops would be continued.
- c. It was agreed that the radio and PW campaign would be continued and expanded.
- d. It was agreed that BGBEGOOD operations would be initiated at an early date. It was agreed that procurement of material to fill cans for BGBEGOOD operations and their filling would be undertaken in the field.
- e. It was agreed that Washington would lay the requirement for GW training of the Guard Companies on the German mission.
- f. It was agreed that no substantial increase in the number of field personnel for Project BGFIEND was required and that we would aim at an improvement in the calibre of operations personnel.
- g. It was agreed that the Field Chief would at the earliest moment outline his detailed plans for 1952 operations and submit them to Washington for approval.
